

PRAYER - BREAKING VOWS

Father God, I have made many inner and outer vows in my life knowingly and unknowingly through pain, anger, joy, frustration, excitement, as a form of protection and out of my own ignorance. I ask for your forgiveness and repent, I seek You today to break free from all these inner and outer vows. I come in spirit and in truth by faith by the power of the Blood of Jesus Christ to the Throne of Grace, to the Courts of Heaven, believing as I confess these inner and outer vows are broken, dismantle, nullified, and goes up in flames by the fire of Great I Am and the Blood of Jesus Christ, the vow that No one cares about me, I'll never let anyone take care of me, I'll never be good enough, I don't trust anyone, people always fail me, everyone in my life abuse and rejects me, I never will please my parents, it's always my fault, I never do anything wrong, I have to take care of myself because no one will help take care of me, I will never trust a man or woman, I am strong, I have no need of anyone, something must be wrong with me, I will never let anyone get close to me, I will never get married, I will never have children, all women lie, women are manipulators, men are stupid, all men lie, all men are weak, all men cheat, all women cheat, I won't raise my kids like the way my parents raised me, I will never have the marriage my parents had, every marriage ends in divorce, I never wanted to get divorced, I will never cry, I will never love like that again, certain race is unsafe, I will control my own destiny, no one will ever hurt me again, I am good alone, I don't like people. All these inner and outer vows that I just confessed out of my mouth or in thought will now go up in flames by the fire of The Great I Am and the Blood of Jesus Christ, it is null and void, dismantled at the point of conception, no longer has power over me, my husband/wife, and children.

Host of Heaven I take power over all the powers of the enemy and command you to go and return to me all that I lost, dismantle the foundation, stronghold, power and influence of these vows, go now.